PABLEY'S canal, on Ninth East street, is dug as far as K street, where it is left off without any outlet. The late thaw has brought water down from the east bench, and filled the canal full, so it is liable to burst an any moment. If it does, in all probability somebody's property will get damaged. The same canal runs through the graveyard where a like cause may injure the graves. The matter should be attended to

at once.

ATER a week's tussel with la grippe, Prof.
White is out again. He says he had the symptoms described in yesterday's HERALD, with the addition of a heavy perspiration in the middle of the night, during which he held on to his bedclothes like grim death, while the perspiration was running down from head to feet in heavy drops and he was enduring a furnace-like heat.
He advises all who might have this high ferer not to step out of bed nor lift the clothes under any circumstances as this is the turning poin of la grippe and much reset is felt the next day.
The press dispatches seem to indicate that careless exposure during the perspiration brought the death chill to poor Walker Bialte.

An antensition meeting of the Sait Lake

AN interesting meeting of the Sait Lake ounty Teachers' institute was held in the County Teachers' institute was held in the Thirteenth district schoolhouse yesterday morning. Pursuant to announcement, Mr. Bradford lectured on Chapters VI and VII of "Baldwin's School Management," the topic being school libraries. Many valuable hints were given on the use and abuse of books and papers in the hands of pupils. At the close of the lecture a brief discussion on the subject was had. Miss Stebbins proceeded in a very natural method to give a drawing lesson, or rather to present matter, i.e. companied by suggestions, for very many lessons in drawing and handlwork. A programme was announced for next meeting, to be held in two w.e.r.s, and the meeting adjourned to that time.

J. F. Berry, advance agent for the Katie Putnam company, has had what he terms a terrible experience with in grippe and pheumo ria. He left Helena, Montana, Decembe, 31, in advance of his company, though feeling quite ill at the time. Junuary he was snow-bound south of Pocatello, Idaho, and on reaching Orden he was to deathly sick that he requested to be sent to Salt Lake immediately, and on arrival here he was taken to Holy Cross hospital, where he has slowly recovered under the care of Dr. Dart. Mr. Berry roports his treatment at the hirst signs of returning strength he had his friends bundle him up and take him to the Cullen house, where he is now doing nicely, and hopes in a few days to be on the street.

The story has leaked out through some of the more conscientious of those "tapped," and has now assumed such a form as to amount to a cyclone and is in the mouth of everyone you meet. It is further alleged that Paymaster Guest and Train Dispatcher Sargeant of the Rio Grande Western managed the registration train on their own rethe registration train on their own re-sponsibility; and that this fact coming to the ears of Col. Dodge, he has demanded the resignation of the aforesaid Guest and Sargeant. Well, and coming as they do from so many and coming as they do from so many sources, a Herald representative yesterday hunted up Mr. Clute to find out what he had to say respecting the charges. Mr. Clute was found at the rooms of the Utah Commission and readily consented to a tetc-a, tete with the reporter. The latter after stating the rumor in brief, asked Mr. Clute if there was any truth in it, to which he replied: "I haven't been out of this city since the 4th of November last, the day the registration began."

"Then, Mr. Clute, you say the story is

"Then, Mr. Clute, you say the story is untrue, do you?"
"As I just said, I haven't been outside of Salt Lake city since November 4. Indeed I haven't been away since October 28, on which day I returned from a trip east. This I can prove."
The office of J. H. Bennett, the general freight and passenger agent of the Rio Grande Western. was next visited to learn what there was in the story of the firing of the officials of that road, above mentioned. Mr. Bennett himself was not in, but Mr. Wm. Brown, his assistant, said, when the rumer was rebearsed to him, that it was rumer was rebearsed to him, that it was the first he had heard of it and he DIDN'T BELIEVE IT WAS TRUE, He wanted the reporter to see Mr. Bennett, however, and so another call was made later on. In the meantime, Mr. Bennett had come and gone but left word with Mr. Brown that there was no truth in he statement that the resignation of the men mentioned was demanded. It was true, Mr. Brown said, that Guest had resigned several days ago and he knew the cause, but it was not for the reserved. several days ago and he knew the cause, but it was not for the reason stated. And just what the reason for the resignation was could not be learned. The call was made upon Registrar Clute, because of the fact that the offices of the railway company are in his precinct. None of the other registrars were interviewed, and for a time, at least, the matter must rest where it now stands.
